What is Make an impact with your Why

What do you stand for? What impact do you want to make? Why do you do the things you do? Your “why” is the starting point for your personal vision and for inspiring others.

People believe in what you believe, which is the core message of Simon Sinek. Knowing why you do things the way you do forms your foundation. The “how” and “what” are simply results.

During this training, we will explore your ‘why,’ ‘mission,’ or ‘conviction.’ What do you find important, and how do you translate that into an inspiring personal core message? You will use this to inspire your surroundings and create impact.
